Una fascinazione per le architetture urbane ha ispirato la nuova collezione di arredo Itlas progettata da Matteo Bianchi Studio, International Interior & Product Design Company.

“Frame” ovvero cornice, fotogramma, struttura: tanti significati che si muovono fra spazio, movimento e design.

Designed by Matteo Bianchi Studio, International Interior & Product Design Company, the new Itlas furniture collection is inspired by the fascination of urban architectures.

The concept of “frame” is adapted to the meaning of structure, photogram, cornice: many meanings that glide across space, movement and design.

Metropolitan Frames

Metropolitan Frames si ispira al rapporto fra design di arredo e forme, stili e pattern distintivi di alcune metropoli che fanno parte dell'immaginario collettivo: il risultato è una connessione universale fra città e prodotti. Tre quartieri di fama mondiale prestano il loro carattere alla nuova collezione living di Itlas che si esprime attraverso linee, superfici e materiali.

Metropolitan Frames takes inspiration between the relationship among furniture design and shapes, and the distinctive patterns of metropolises that build up the collective imaginary: the result is a universal connection between cities and products. Three world-known districts lend their character to the new Itlas living collection that expresses itself through lines, surfaces and materials.

Al contempo, le sue linee riflettono le architetture alte e strette che rendono immediatamente riconoscibile il quartiere.

Together, the design reflects the high and narrow architectures that make this interior immediately recognisable.

ROME

Monti

Monti celebra la vita
nella sua accezione
temporale ed eterna, grazie ai sistemi
circolari che sono
per antonomasia un
simbolo di esistenza, cuore e anima.

Monti celebrates life in its temporary and eternal meaning, thanks to circular systems that most represent existence, heart and soul.

“Quando sei a Roma, fa’ come fanno i romani”.
Come il quartiere che
più di tutti esprime l’essenza di Roma, il tavolo Monti proietta le delicate sinuosità del Colosseo e ne traccia la struttura.

“When in Rome, do as the Romans do”. Just like the quote, most expresses Rome’s essence, the Monti table expresses Rome’s essence through the delicate sinuosities of the Colosseum and the structure’s outline.
