GRUPPO  MONDADORI

FROM VENICE TO NEW YORK

INTERNATIONAL ENGLISH ISSUE

A floor made with the model IGC 111 blocks in domestic walnut, from the I Grandi Classici collection by Itlas. On the facing page, above, beech trees in the forest of Cansiglio, located 25 km from the Itlas production site. With these logs, the company has developed the Assi del Cansiglio project, the first prefinished floor in certified Italian wood. Below: storage of oak logs.

Designing COVER STORY

LIVING MATTER

Natural material, the allure of fine craftsmanship, the quality of Made in Italy. But also rigorously controlled and certified ecological content: these are the factors that set the floors and products in wood by Itlas apart. And they explain why a material with an ancient history will be one of the protagonists of the future
